Registration for the DAI Nuremberg Library (sponsored by the U.S. Embassy Berlin)

To borrow books and audio books via the eBooksUSA platform, you need a valid library card of the DAI Nuremberg. You will receive this card after presenting a valid photo ID (identity card, passport with registration certificate) to our librarian or DAI staff member and paying the annual fee of 10€. For members of the DAI-Förderverein, the library membership is free of charge. If you are unable to come to the library in person, please follow the steps below to register for a library card:

1. Fill out the registration form below. Your login data will be your date of birth and your library card number.
2. Copy your identity card or passport with a registration certificate (front and back).
3. If you are a pupil or student, please make a copy of your student ID or certificate of enrollment.
4. Send the completed registration form, the copy of your identity card and, if applicable, your student enrollment to the DAI by mail or fax (NOT by email).
5. Transfer the annual fee of 10€ to the DAI, stating the purpose of use library card and your full name.

After successful payment of the fee, you will receive your library card by mail and your access to eBooksUSA will be activated.

You can then log in to eBooksUSA and borrow, read, listen, and view books and e-media from anywhere in the world. For log-in instructions and help navigating eBooksUSA, please visit our website for more information.
